Eyemouth Museum is an independent museum run by volunteers as a charitable trust. We have no direct subsidy from the local authority. To cover running costs we depend entirely on money raised from entrance fees, membership subscriptions, donations and profits from our well stocked gift shop.

The aim of the Trust and Museum is to preserve the history of the Eyemouth area, its heritage and its people we are very keen to ensure that the museum is sustainable for years to come. We are also a Tourist Information Centre which provides a vital service to visitors, helping to support the local economy in the process.

The Museum/Information Centre had a footfall of 14,906 in 2015. As a key attraction and central point within Eyemouth, we are ideally placed to advertise & promote your business and can offer you the following business options:
